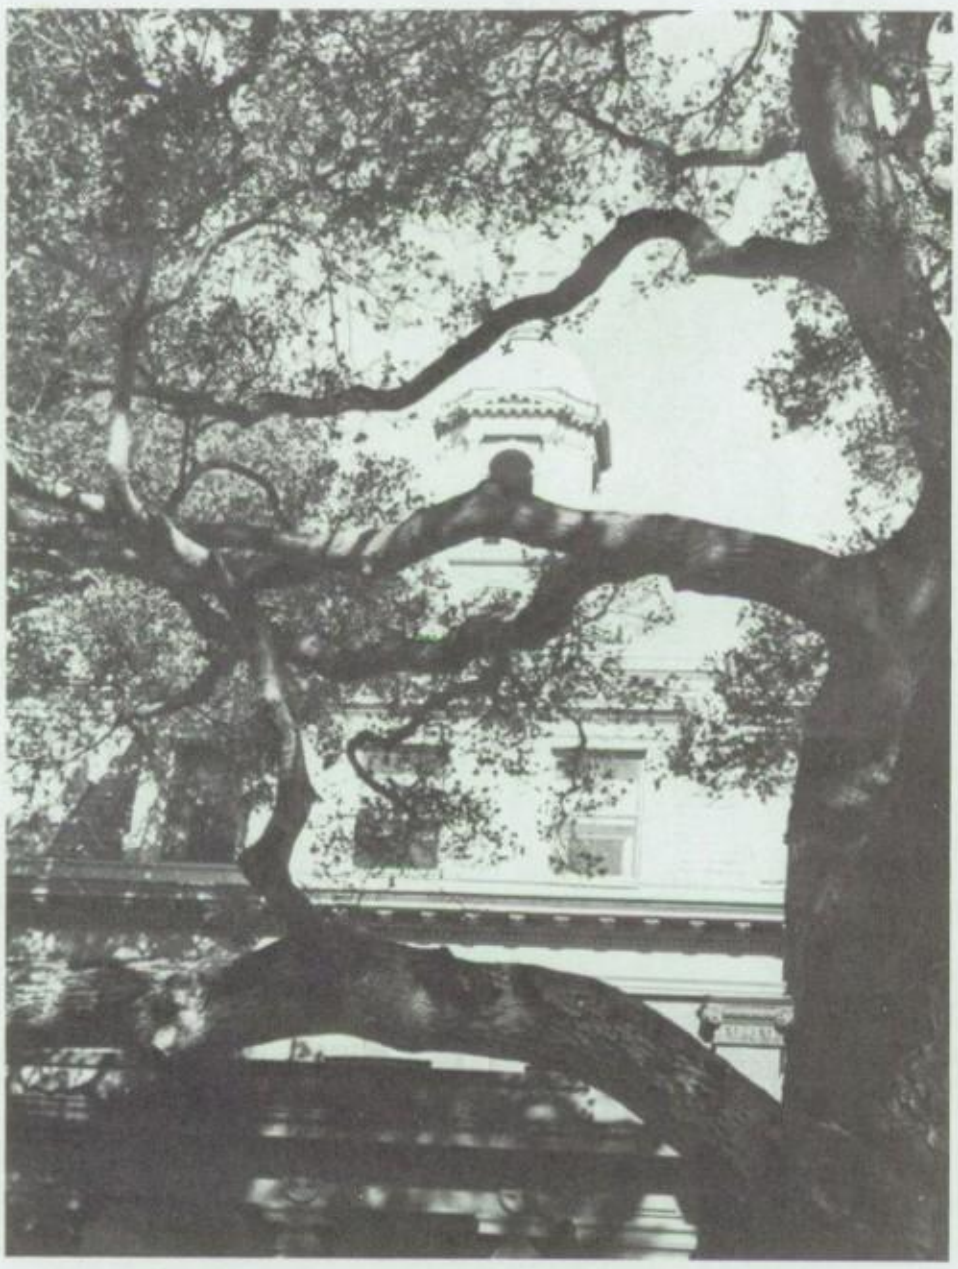
Sacred Heart High School, Menlo



CHANGES 1984

As a freshman you dream of your Senior year and graduation. But the four years pass too quickly and, before you know it, it's time to say farewell to your friends and to Sacred Heart.

The cold mornings in December; the Spring days when you'd rather be poolside than in math class; off-campus at lunch; mixers; formals; boyfriends and blind dates; tears and laughter with friends . . . the memories follow you wherever you go, of your life here at Sacred Heart.

Laura Planting, Student

There is an esprit de corps at Sacred Heart that is shared by students, faculty and staff. Students come from all over the world to be educated and to contribute as well to their academic environment. Everyone feels the excitement of achieving the new goal of becoming a co-educational school. As one big family, each new day brings the Sacred Heart family closer together. As this family's ideas grow, so too, does the world that makes Sacred Heart so special.

WELCOME TO SACRED HEART

Happiness adds and multiples as we divide it with others.

I am not afraid of tomorrow for I have seen yesterday and I love today.

Senior Studs - Amy, Martha, Trephya.

I remember when- We were all thinner because everyone pounded up three flights to first period classes on third floor, convened by a nun in black habit ringing a hand held bell, and woe to a student not on time. Prime was the time to separate the obedient from the trouble-making student, and gouter was a snack served after school. Closed campus was really closed with gates locked at 10:00 P.M., and burly Great Danes roamed the property for prowlers; when we stayed late for rehearsals we ran in terror from the Little Theatre to our waiting cars wondering if the Danes would get us even though the rumor was that the dogs bit males only. All the Sisters were called Mothers and all students curtseyed to them. We were The Convent, and there wasn't a male for miles around.

But the spirit was here because- The friends we made in September lasted four years and sometimes forever; our family was universal because we visited each other in Menlo or in Peru. Candlelight Mass was a beautiful tradition; detention was not beautiful but it still bound us together in sympathy. Classes had unity and spirit because we had retreats, picnics, dances, Spirit Weeks, daily activities together. The spirit of cooperation was always stronger than the Nice shoes . . .

Will you seek far off? You will come back at last to things best known to you, finding happiness, knowledge, not in another place, but in this place, not for another hour, but this hour.

Walt Whitman.

My heart is warm with friends I make, And better friends I'll not be knowing. Yet there's not a train I wouldn't take- No matter where it's going.

- Edna St. Vincent Millay.

Instead, each cubicle contained a white china picture of the Immaculate Conception and the Five Wounds and a small red flannel badge of the Sacred Heart. These, Nanda learnt, could be supplemented by private Holy Pictures or the photos of very near relatives.

EXCHANGE DAY

The Exchange Day with Woodside Priory was a student initiated and organized project that was three years in the making. Finally it all came to pass in the Fall of 1983! All the freshmen and sophomores from both schools came to Sacred Heart and the juniors and seniors from both schools met at the Priory. Events differed slightly at the two schools, but were a combination of large and small group values oriented activities plus recreational activities. The grand Finale at both schools was a pumpkin carving contest.

1. The tug of war gets going. What are all those guys standing around for?
2. Love me, love my pumpkin.
3. "Naturally I think this is a special pumpkin."

SENIOR RETREAT

What a thrilling experience to travel in two wonderful buses to an out of the way convent, converted to a glorious mountain resort. The numerous activities of the day exhilerated our minds, bodies and what else? . . . Oh, souls! The food, cooked by the sisters, was much appreciated by the majority of the seniors, except for those on frozen fruit and coffee diets. The outstanding performances given at the talent show were the highlights of the retreat. Thoughts of homocidal nuns with hatchets kept many eyes wide open during night. The Senior class achieved its most productive moments on the morn of the second day when we planned the year's activities in a few short hours. By the end of the retreat, many a burned out senior, trekked back home to study for history mid-terms.

WINTER FORMAL

This year's all school Winter Formal, held at La Baie restaurant in Burlingame, was a huge success. The very danceable band was Broadway and the dance floor was packed the whole night long. The evening was enjoyed by all and from what we hear today, the windows are still steamed up!

1

Sadie Hawkins Dance

This year, in addition to our two formals, we had a Sadie Hawkins Dance. It took place in February in the Siegall building. We hired a Disc Jockey from the popular radio station KQAK and he played very danceable, new wave music from 8:30 to 12 midnight. Couples were supposed to come dressed alike. We had sailors, Hells Angels, Safari Hunters and a wide variety of other costumes. Hopefully this will become a new tradition at Sacred Heart. . .Those who went had a wonderful time!!

1. The Quake shaked with it's D.J. Rob Francis
2. Okay you two, stop getting tangled up.
3. Jane, smile pretty for the camera!
4. Paige & Carol with their Sweethearts: The foursome underwear streakers!

CANDLELIGHT MASS

Candlelight mass was as beautiful as ever in spite of no Luminares and a little bit of rain. The Christmas Carols, familiar to all, were sung loud and clear. The chapel decorations were bathed in the glow of many candles. This year we again had a lovely performance by the dance class, which made the mass very special. This is one of our great traditions, enjoyed by all participants.

1

1. The dancers enter the chapel.
2. A group of senior carolers.
3. Everyone found something to eat at the party after Mass.

KRIS KRINGLE

An annual tradition that puts a lot of fun into the pre-finals blues is "Kris Kringle". Small gift giving lasted four days this year and culminated on the last day of finals with the Kris Kringle party. Here everyone got to find out who his or her "K.K." had been and share in some mutual surprises! We were again blessed with a visit from our special Santa Claus (Guess Who??!. . . initials T.G.!) who always seems to know the inside story here at Sacred Heart. "Ho,Ho,Ho and a Merry Christmas."

1. Whoever thought Santa would be so funny!?
2. Miss Sullivan helps pass out gifts.
3. These sophisticated Juniors still look like true believers . . . is that really Santa?
4. Trying to guess who the next K.K. will be.

The Miracle Worker

Cast:
Helen Keller: Kristin Strout
Annie Sullivan: Tricia Chan
Captain Keller: Tad Lacey
Kate Keller: Julie Glockner
Viney: Tameeka White
James Keller: Kathleen Clark
Percy, and Blind Girl: Joyce Yen
Martha and Blind Girl: Karen Eshoo
Blind Girl: Cathy Colenaty
Lights: Sara Wolloms

This year's winter theater production was "The Miracle Worker" under the direction of John Cochran, the students performed beautifully. While at first students and friends had a difficult time believing Kristin was really blind, deaf and dumb (especially the latter!), by the end of the play they were convinced. Her relationship with her teacher Annie Sullivan was very convincing; at times frustrating and finally thrilling as Helen mastered the alphabet and learned what the 'signs' stood for. The stage production was fairly unique. The stage showed more than one area and some times scenes in different rooms and places were shown simultaneously. The play was a thoughtful production and the Drama class and director are to be congratulated.

It's debatable whether Freshmen Initiation is ever really fun for the Freshmen - but the Seniors sure enjoy it!!! This year the Freshmen were humiliated in the usual ways and they were for the most part, good sports, FRESHMEN FROGS. . ..After a week of serving the seniors every whim and command (things fell apart a bit during the car wash. . .hoses were supposed to be aimed at the cars!!. . .) the Freshmen were treated to a delicious pot-luck lunch by the Seniors and their advisors. Then they were awarded their ribbons.

1. Line up on your lily pads and look sharp girls!
2. Sweet Senior Piper Penning offers Freshmen Ahmi Chang, Tameeka White, Elaine Berra and Judy Edmundson some friendly encouragement.
3. Look at those frogs hop on command!

GOTTA DANCE

This year's Dance Production had a cast of thousands! They presented an entertaining night of choreography.
1. Saccoro Rivera, Angela Law, Yoloda Yung and Cindy Leong give their version of Aerobics . . . Shake 'em YOLONDA!!!
2. Kristin Strout strikes a poetic pose during a dance duet.
3. Make up enhanced Laura Ariagno's performance.
4. Tricia Chan in one of her energetic dance numbers.
5. No wonder W.C. Fields hated kids . . . these guys just about stole the show!!!

7. Francis Rowell, literary staff and Clarise Tsang, utility person (she does everything!) go over the wording of the dedication.
8. Chris Latta goes over her photographs with Sharon.
We are sorry that some yearbook members were absent. Their efforts were also greatly appreciated. Thank you Meredith Hall.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

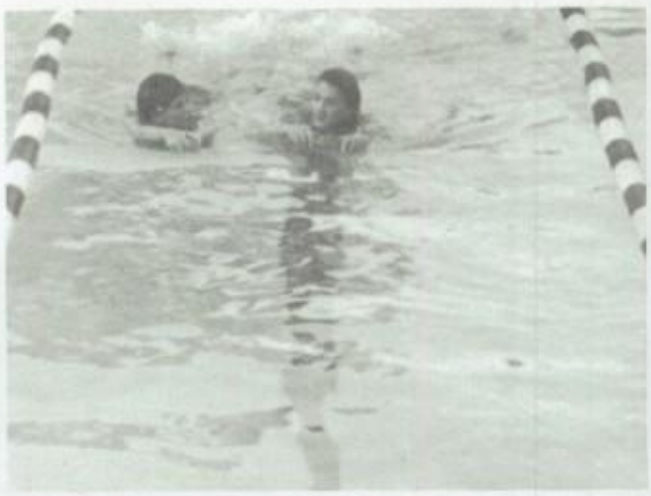
President- Ann Sifferman
Vice-President - Wendy Yengst
Secretary/Treasurer - Paige Tecca
Social Head - Maureen Lanahan
Publicity Head - Sandy Walery
Boarder Representative- Yolonda Yung

This year's Executive Council was led by an energetic team of seniors. The year got off to a good start with an event planned by Wendy Yengst, Vice-President. This was an Exchange Day with the Priory. The President and Vice-President also helped do much of the work involved in the NCOG visitation at the end of February. This included working on the student survey, raising the awareness of the Student Body about the goals and criteria and planning a special NCOG Liuturgy. Social Head Maureen Lanahan worked hard with her committee to produce some very successful dances. First was the Winter Formal held in December. Then in February and March a Sadie Hawkins Dance and the much loved, traditional Father/Daughter Dance.

Publicity Head, Sandy Walery did a great deal to brighten the school landscape with posters and bulletin board displays. Colorful banners informed students of the five goals prior to the NCOG visitation and our sports teams got a boost with specially designed banners displayed at homeroom.

The Boarding school was an active place in its final year. Yolonda Yung kept the Student Council well informed about these activities. Some of the special events were dinner dances with Woodside Priory, the annual, infamous Halloween Party and a mouthwatering Chinese New Year dinner.

Team Sports



SWIM TEAM

The swim team made a big splash this season with a 0-14 record, but we had a lot of fun. Some of us improved on our strokes, some of us just learned them. We couldn't have done it without you Hawk Karl; you and your support of every teamate!

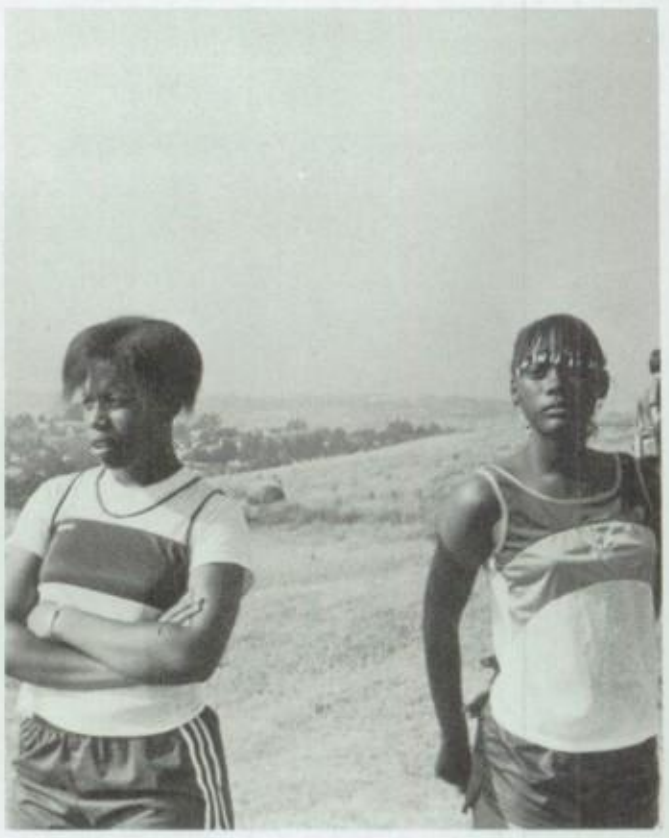
CROSS COUNTRY

The 1983 Cross Country team won the 3rd consecutive GPSL championships at Crystal Springs. Trixie Brugger was League Champion followed by Sonja Frank, a close second; sophomore, Pam Lowney placed fifth, Michelle Anderson was eighth, while Carrie Van Heyst placed thirteenth. J. V. competitors were Anna Tobin, Kobie Bruce, Tristi Nichols, Aoife Dowley and Lora Ariagno.
Against all other competition, our outstanding harriers consistently placed among the top six schools at all center meets.

Anna Tobin, Carrie Van Heyst, Kobie Bruce, Trixie Brugger, Sonja Frank, Tristi Nichols, Pam Lowney, Lora Ariagno, Aoife Dowley



TENNIS TEAM

The Tennis Team this year was enthusiastic and spirited. Everybody's effort was tremendous. In early October six girls played at the Santa Catalina tournament. Sarah Ellis made it to the finals of the consolation round. Michelle Chapple played superbly in the 18's finals. Molly Lynch and Trephya Jones played well in the quarterfinals of the 16's. Sandy Walery and Michele Beresford were at a high in the 18's semifinals. In early November, Michelle Chapple and Michele Beresford won the GPSL doubles Championships. Congratulations girls and thank you, Joel.

SOCCER

Soccer season got off to a damp start — players were advised to bring foul weather gear. Coach John Adams conducted practice in the rain and mud and probably forged a lot of team spirit along the way! As the weather improved, the team grew and by the end of November they were looking pretty sharp, practicing drills in the slanting rays of the setting winter sun. As the season was just beginning, we don't have a record of wins and losses . . . but we wish the team well!

BASKETBALL

Basketball season got off to an enthusiastic start with a good turnout of students and a new coach, Kevin Eagleson. Practices were in the afternoon (earlier than in years past) at St. Joseph's Gym . . . next year we'll finally have our own place!! Because the season was just starting when we sent these pages off, there is no win/loss record to report. We wish the team the best of luck for their season!

Winners and Losers

Be a winner.
A winner is always a part of the answer.
A loser is always a part of the problem.
The winner always has a program.
The loser always has an excuse.
The winner sees a green near every sand trap
The loser sees two or three sand traps near every green.
The winner says "Let me do it for you."
The loser says "That is not my job".
The winner sees an answer for every problem.
The loser sees a problem in every answer.
The winner says
"It may be difficult, but it's possible.
The loser says
"It may be possible, but it's too difficult"

Ticking away the moments that make up a dull day
You fritter and waste the hours in an

Kicking around on a piece of ground in your home town
Waiting for someone or something to show you the way...
You are young and life is long and there is time to kill today.
Pink Floyd

Memories - light the corners of my mind.
Misty watercolor memories - of the way we were.
Scattered pictures -of the smiles we left behind,
Smiles we gave to one another - for the way we were
Can it be that it was all so simple then or has time rewritten every line?
If we had a chance to do it all again, tell me
Would we? Could we?
Breathe, Breathe in the air
Don't be afraid to care...
Leave but don't leave me
Look around and choose your own ground
For long you live and high you fly
And smiles you'll give and tears you'll cry
And all you touch and all you see
Is all your life will be.

And to those left behind
I wanted you to know
You've shared my deepest thoughts
And oh when I'm old and wise
Bitter words mean little to me...
And someday in the midst of time
When they ask me if I knew you
I'd smile and say you were a

And the sadness would be lifted from my eyes
I want you all to know...

And then I try to please them so
But how far can this pleasing go?
Michael Jackson

I want destiny
it's the place for me
Give me the simple life
I'm gettin away from here
Let me be free, let me be me
I wanna be far from here.
Should I up and fly away
so fancy free
Nobody can change my mind
I'm screaming out these words for me
While time
Destiny is calling me
I want Destiny
It's the place for me.

Of all the people in my past,
fading faces in a waking dream
They are faces I'll remember from the places in my past makes me want to laugh and cry but I still love those good times gone by.

In time of need and despair
you've always been there
You are my friend

Although people come and go
you've always been there
You are my friend

Your smiles bring forth loving care
you've always been there
You are my friend

Wherever I will be, I'll know
you've always been there
YOU ARE MY FRIEND
-Donna Lee,
"I LOVE YOU, BUDDIES FOREVER"

Mom and Dad and family:
We went through it all just you and I
I will never forget you
Our friendship has made it all worthwhile,
Never stop smiling
and laughing
I'm going to miss you all!!
ALL MY LOVE FOREVER,
CAROL ANN

I'll never wave Bye-Bye.

Kiss today goodbye,
The sweetness and the sorrow.
Wish me luck, the same to you . . .
look my eyes are dry,
The gift was ours to borrow.
It's as if we always knew . . .
Kiss today goodbye,
And point me toward tomorrow.
We did what we had to,
and I won't forget . . .
A Chorus Line

I thought how Theocritus had sung
Of the sweetest years,
The dear wished for years,
Who each on in a gracious hand appears
To bear a gift for mortals, old or young.

Love,
Paige

P.S. - It's been great!!!

Mom & Dad,
You gave me my wings
And taught me to fly,
You didn't hold back,
You showed me the sky.
You gave me the world
On a silver tray,
You taught me of love,
And the games people play.
You gave me the strength
To stand alone
And all the confidence
To make it on my own.
You gave it all
But you'll never know
Just how much
You helped me grow.
I love you,

Michelle

!!BYE KIDS!!

It gave me a vision
Of what life is to be.
It showed me the world
What I was to see.
I cherished our time
For the time was well spent.
Then suddenly one day
It wasn't there by my side,
It was gone forever,
But not a tear did I cry.
I rushed through the days
By myself, all alone,
Cherished our memories.
Although my anger's grown.
I cried for all the empty dreams
That people have these days,
I cried because I had a dream,
And then it slipped away.
I cried because a friendship like ours
Was always meant to last.
To endure throughout eternity,
The present, the future, the past.

Time is not measured by
by the years that you live
But by the deeds that you do and the joy that you give-
And each day as it comes brings a chance to each one
To love to the fullest leaving nothing undone
That would brighten the life or lighten the load
of some weary traveler
lost on life's road-
So what does it matter
how long we may live
If as long as we live
we unselfishly give

Senior's Study Hall
Convent of the Sacred Heart Menlo Park Calif.
x → my desk

As this is the last year of some Sacred Heart traditions, the yearbook staff is dedicating this yearbook to their memory. For nearly ninety years, Sacred Heart Menlo has prided itself on its all female, international student body; a percentage of whom resided in the boarding school. Come September, males will sit in the classrooms as students. There will no longer be ESL classes or late night activity in the main building. We're sorry to see the old traditions pass, but wish the new beginning well.
